

Three Seek Top Knight Office

Lyle O'Hara, Stacy Rodman, and Jack Steinberg have been nominated as candidates for the office of Grand Knight of the Los Crusados council, Knights of Columbus, according to an announcement released this week by Joe Bonchansky, chairman of the council's nominating committee.

The election of new officers for the 1960-1 term will be held in the council chambers, 214 Avenu I, Redondo Beach, on Monday, June 6th, at 8 p.m.

Nominal succession to the council's highest ranking office was declined by Edwin C. Olsen, present deputy grand knight, creating a race for the post. Next Monday night's winner will succeed Howard Hood of Torrance as grand knight.

Security Bank Remodels L.A. Head Office

Security First National Bank has taken on a new look—the complete remodeling of its Los Angeles head office. The entire 13 stories of Security's Sixth & Spring headquarters have just undergone top-to-bottom redesigning and rehabilitating.

Planned, designed and engineered by Welton Becket and Assoc., architects and engineers, the more than $4,000,000 head office remodeling job included structural changes to the building itself, a modern facing on the exterior of the first two floors, an almost complete change in the electrical system, installation of an air conditioning system, a complete change in the plumbing system, new elevators, and a complete remodeling and redecorating of the first ten floors. This included new lighting, new ceilings, new floors and new restrooms.

The McNeil Construction Co. was general contractor.

JAPANESE VISITORS . . . Ten dry cleaning and laundry plant owners from Tokyo and surrounding cities in Japan visited the Walteria Cleaners, 24264 Hawthorne Ave., Wednesday morning as part of a study and inspection tour of similar operations in California. New Legion Assignments Announced Executive appointments to several offices were announced this week by Stanley Heiman, newly installed commander of the Bert S. Crossland Post 170 of the American Legion.

Named to the house committee by Heiman was John Kelley, Dr. Frank Murin, and Sam LoCicero.

Parliamentarian will be

Newt Mathis, and J. Harris will be chairman of the new attendance committee.

Ben Roberts was named chairman of the finance committee.

A meeting of the post's executive committee has been called by Heiman for this evening, he said. At installation ceremonies last week, he announced a membership goal of 1000 Legionnaires, and said a program to obtain that membership would be given thorough study tonight.

Roy P. Richardson, machinist's mate third class, USN, of 21104 S. Normandie, departed Long Beach, May 3, aboard the destroyer USS Eversole for a two-year tour of duty with the U. S. Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

While overseas the Eversole and her crew will be homeported at Yokosuka, Japan, and will conduct operations including patrol of the Formosan Straits, intensive anti-submarine exercises, screening of carrier task forces and may specialized missions of which destroyers are capable.
